

RULES OF CONDUCT

1. A Blackman must show the greatest of intelligence at all times.
2. Never be the aggressor by word or action, but in the event you are attacked; stick together and battle as a solid wall.
3. Obey the Laws of the land or government you must live under, for if you cannot keep those laws, how can you obey the Laws of God? But if those Laws conflict with the Laws of God, then fear God and God alone must you fear.
4. What is the Duty of Captain and Lieutenant? The Captain's duty is to give the order to the Lieutenant and the Lieutenant's duty is to teach the private soldiers and also train them.
5. A Blackman's word is Bond and Bond is Life; I will give my Life before my Word shall fail.
6. A Blackman must always keep purity of Mind and cleanliness of body.
7. A Blackman does not give to the use of oath.
8. A Blackman acknowledges and recognizes that he is a member of the Creator's Nation and acts accordingly to this in the Name of God; as a Blackman, we must set an example for the Lost-Found. This requires Actions and Deeds; not words and lip-service.
9. We must recognize the necessity for unity and group operation.
10. Stop needless Criticism of your brother. We must remember jealousy destroys within.
11. The Law of God says if one brother has a bowl of soup, the other brother has half of that bowl; his success is your success.
12. Be patient in matters where others are involved, remember that there are times that we that know, knew not.
13. Do not take the bad side of a thing that appears to us as bad as there is always a good side; it is better to take that side.
14. Actions are judged by intentions; actions may appear wrong but motives bring rewards.
15. Seek not to find fault with your brother, this does not mean to make unnecessary excuses for wrongdoing.
